

Where to Exhibit Your Masterpiece

The following is a list of Greater Lansing area art galleries, art centers, gift shops, and other locations that offer space to exhibit fine art or craft items, usually on a consignment basis. While no means complete, it does offer a starting point for emerging artists who want to expand their marketing efforts locally. The MMAG can offer no guarantee regarding the acceptance of your work at any particular location. We add new locations as they become available; please send your information to the MMAG Website Manager about any exhibition space you don't see listed here. For other opportunities to show your work, please consult our list of current and upcoming juried competitions.
